The Borough of Prospect Park has entered into agreements with the Borough of Haledon and the Borough of Hawthorne to allow Prospect Park residents to obtain library cards at either library for a nominal fee for a one-year library membership. To begin the process for a library card at either library, simply visit the Prospect Park Municipal Clerk's Office, complete an application, pay the fee ($20.00 per household and $15.00 for seniors), then you will be provided with documentation to bring to either library to receive the library card there. Prospect Park residents cannot have memberships to both the Hawthorne and Haledon Library at the same time.
