On a motion by Judy Dupre and seconded by Joseph Irving Jr, and a unanimous voice vote in the affirmative, the board voted to approve the bills for the month August 2016.

Items brought before the board: (4)

- Grass Cutting

Joseph Irving Jr. inquired about the grass along Hwy 10, from Palmetto City Limits to Lebeau. From the Hwy to the Rail Road tracks. His question was, "why haven't we been cutting the grass from the hwy to the rail road tracks?" The clerk's response was, (1). It's been too wet to pass with the tractor. (2). the state only pays us to cut from the Hwy to the middle of the ditch along the Hwy.

Clerks did inform the board that as soon as it is dry enough, it will be cut at least one more time before the winter sets in.

- Brown Water

Judy Dupre advised the board that a concerned citizen (Kristie Taylor) was complaining to her about her brown water, and it had been brown for several days. With the water supervisor (Bernard Nevills) being absent from the meeting, there was no resolution to her problem, only speculation.

- Gas Leaks

Bernard Nevills was absent- No update on the gas leaks.

- Systems Flush

Bernard Nevills was absent- No update on the system being flushed.

On a motion by Guyton Budden and seconded by Joseph Irving Jr. and a unanimous voice in the affirmative, the meeting was called to adjourn.
