EXPERIENCE

President

Burke Brothers Hardware, Raleigh, NC

April 2010 to present

Own and manage daily operations and all aspects of a 90 year old small, family owned business. I manage inventory, schedule employees, handle accounts payable and accounts receivable, manage the website, decide on advertising, and oversee customer service to over 300 customers per day.

Manager

Town and Country Hardware, Raleigh, NC

February 2008 to April 2010

Managed the daily operations of a 15,000 square foot hardware store. I managed 5 full time and numerous part time employees, managed inventory, and trained employees in customer service including paint and small engine repair.

Manager

Apex Ace Hardware, Apex, NC

February 1998 to February 2008

Managed the daily operations of a 10,000 square foot hardware store. I managed 6 full time and numerous part time employees, oversaw the small engine repair business, started the farm animal feed division, and successfully implemented a new computer inventory and point of sale system.

Manager, Inside Sales

Jeffreys Seed Company, Goldsboro, NC

June 1993 to February 1998

Handled sales of commercial vegetable seed to farmers throughout the US. I oversaw field trials, customer concerns, shipping, and inventory for a company that provided the seed that fed half of the United States.

EDUCATION

Botany

North Carolina State University

1989

LEADERSHIP

Currently, I am the chair of the Wake County Historic Preservation Commission, a member of the Capital Area Preservation board of directors, the president of the Board of Directors at the NC State University Club, the President of the Apex Historical Society, the vice chair of the West Raleigh Alliance, the chair of the Apex Festival Commission, and a member of the Apex Planning Board. In the past, I have been on the board for the Apex Chamber of Commerce twice, and have served on several boards for local schools.

Raleigh

Interests & Experiences

Why are you interested in serving on a Board or Commission?

I am deeply invested in shaping Raleigh into a city where culture, history, and community are not only preserved but amplified. Serving on a Board or Commission allows me to contribute my lived experience and professional expertise toward policies and programs that ensure inclusivity, equity, and sustainability. My work with Liberation Station Bookstore has taught me the importance of civic collaboration and community engagement, and I am eager to lend that perspective in service to the city.

Work Experience

Founder & Creative Director, Liberation Station Bookstore - Established North Carolina's first Black-owned children's bookstore; curated exhibits and programs that affirm cultural identity and literacy; managed staff, budgets, and strategic partnerships; featured nationally in The New York Times, NPR, Good Morning America, and Essence. Author & Public Speaker - Published children's literature under major publishing houses; frequent keynote speaker and panelist on literacy, cultural equity, and community resilience. Community Strategist - Experience in partnership development with schools, nonprofits, and civic institutions to expand access to literature and cultural programming. Museum Collaborator, North Carolina Museum of Art (NCMA) - Developed The Museum Lives in Me project, supported by the Bastian Family Foundation; designed programming and literary work that connected young audiences to NCMA's collections, demonstrating how museums can be living, inclusive spaces.

Volunteer Experience

Village of Wisdom Fellow - Collaborated with other community leaders to design and implement Black Genius Festival programming. Literacy Advocate - Facilitated book drives, school partnerships, and mentorship for parents navigating educational systems. Community Organizer - Active participant in cultural preservation initiatives, book ban advocacy, and local storytelling projects.

Education

Bachelor's degree coursework in English & Cultural Studies (focus on literature and cultural narratives). Ongoing professional development in nonprofit leadership, museum engagement, community organizing, and social impact entrepreneurship.

Comments

My commitment to community, literacy, and cultural preservation aligns with Raleigh's vision for innovation and resilience. With hands-on experience building Liberation Station and collaborating with NCMA, I bring both entrepreneurial and institutional expertise, bridging grassroots storytelling with museum-level strategy. Serving on a Board or Commission would allow me to amplify community voices, strengthen partnerships, and ensure that Raleigh continues to lead in cultural equity and inclusive growth.
