Mayor Bowen presented a request from Officer Thompson to store his camper behind Town Hall for the winter, The governing body felt it was not in the best interest of the Town for storage and requested that he procure a different location.

Mayor Bowen presented another request from the Local Girls Scouts; they requested to host their group meetings and activities at Diamondville Town Hall. The Governing Body decided not to permit the use of the facility for the Girl Scouts.

Chief Jeff Kolata informed the Council of another Phone scam; persons are pretending to be Officer's with the Lincoln County Sheriff's Office stating that there are warrants out for arrest, and taking payment in lieu of arrest. Chief Kolata wanted to inform the Council that this is fraud and the LCSO will never contact or take payment for warrants in this manner.
