GUESTS & COMMENTS:

Rudy Abersold, Putnam Road, Mike & Laura Blake, Park Avenue, Judy Garncareck, Dale Drive, John Sipos - Historian, Pennington Road

Mike Blake – he wanted to stop back and revisit the water issue in front of his house at the end of his driveway. He had attended a prior meeting and brought up the issue. It's hard to snow blow his driveway and it becomes an ice rink due to the water having nowhere to go. Trustee Astry noted that gravel was put in to try and alleviate this issue, but the road is actually 8" higher than their yard due to resurfacing over the years. Per homeowner the gravel has not made a difference. Discussion was had on if a catch basin could be installed or any drainage piping to alleviate this issue. Trustee Astry will look into it, but he's not sure if anything can feasibly be done.

Rudy Abersold – He came to share a story. Back in 1944 there was a young man who lived on Tarbox Road drafted into the Navy, he served bootcamp in Seneca Lake, Geneva, NY, where he did submarine training in areas off limits to civilians. He married his mother in 1999, and he recently turned 99 years old, and Rudy believes he is the oldest surviving WWII veteran living in Cassadaga, NY, Robert Kennelley.

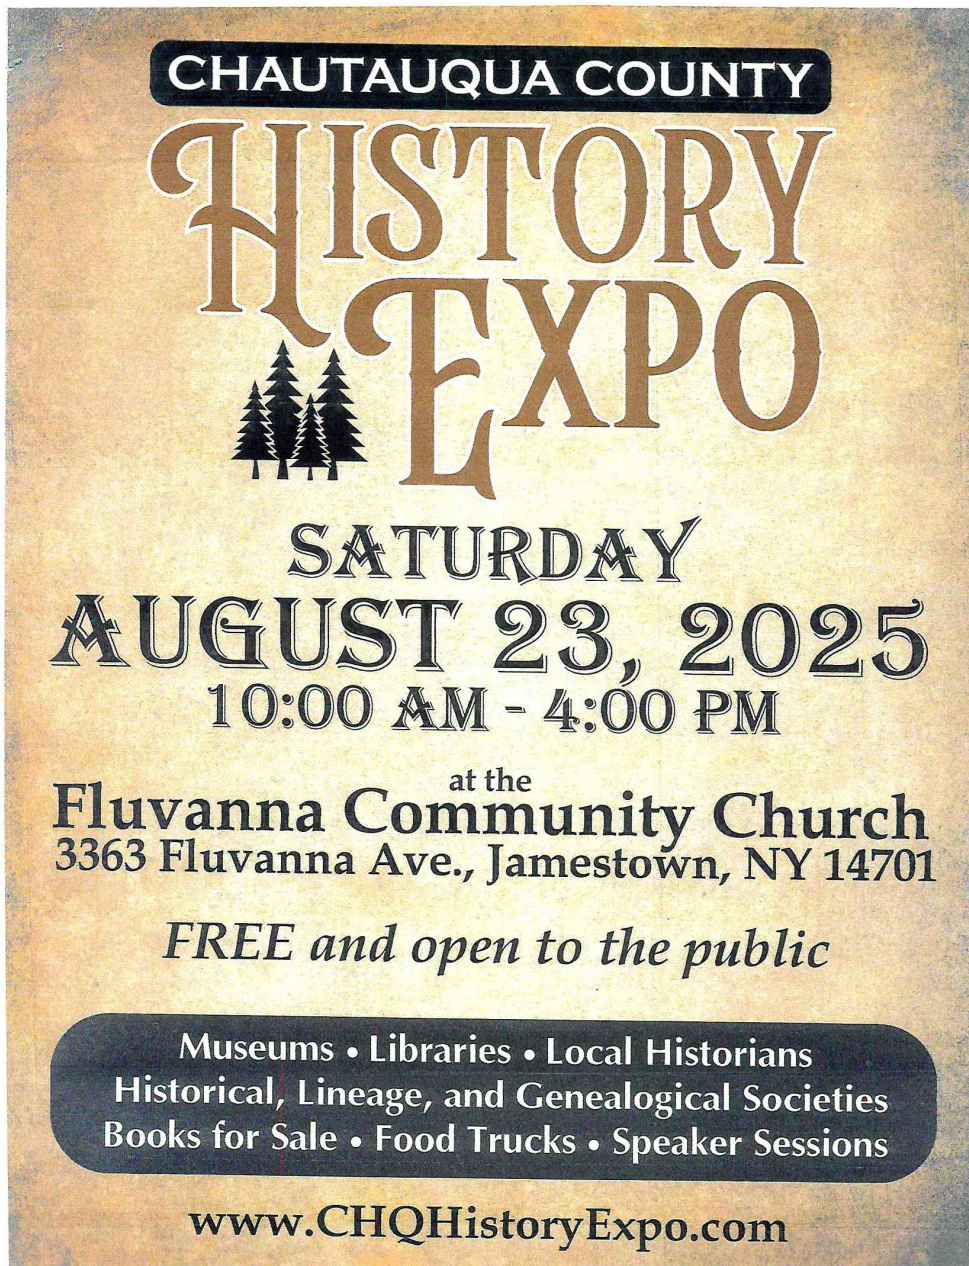

John Sipos – Cassadaga Historian Report

Today, April 9th is the 160th anniversary of the end of the Civil War in the United States. This war had the most US casualties of any war that the United States was involved with, more than 624,000. The casualties were from battles and disease. Historians of later time are putting the number of casualties to 755,000. A sad loss of life.

Saturday May 3rd is the annual Chautauqua County Workers Memorial to be held at 11 a.m. in Frewsburg at the Erlandson Park. The memorial, which is one of 6 held in New York State, is to remember those workers who went to work and never returned home due to an accident or other problem. Susan and I will represent the village of Cassadaga.

The Chautauqua County History Fair is on Saturday August 23rd from 10:00 a.m. until 4 p.m. at the Fellowship Hall of the Fluvanna Church. There is no admission charge. I will have a display of some of the many Cassadaga items of history. Everyone is welcome. See poster below.
