Updates regarding various boards, commissions, and activities since the last meeting: Carr attended the following meetings: Iowa Governmental Health Care Plan, Risk Management, Community Partners for Protecting Children, Decat, Child Abuse Prevention, Floyd County Farm Bureau and NextEra. Rottinghaus attended the Charles City Main Street Committee and Chamber Board of Directors meetings. Campbell participated in the Early Childhood Floyd-Mitchell-Chickasaw Early Childhood Iowa meeting, noting Shawa Lebeck's resignation effective April 3, 2026. All three also took part in secondary road negotiations.

Liz Hamm, Clerk of Court Judicial Operations Supervisor, requested approval to add Leslyee's Library, a free children's book program, to the courthouse. Campbell/Carr moved to approve installation of a Leslyee's Library in the Courthouse. Motion carried 3-0.

Gail Arjes, Public Health Director, provided an update on Public Health and Board of Health.

The Board noted the retirement of a part time nurse Diana Swartzrock, effective March 12.

Bernie Solomon, IT Director, provided an IT update. Dispatch is moving to a new recording service, which will allow them to transition to the new phone system and address issues with busy signals. Solomon is also completing cleanup work from the project and confirmed that the new server remains on schedule.

Adam Miller, County Engineer, provided a Secondary Roads update including completion of the interior work at the Rockford Shop and preparation for culvert construction, with most new forms now received. On 130th Street, the closed bridges have been removed, and a surveyor will be brought in to continue the road-vacation process. Miller also noted that last Friday's heavier-than-expected snowfall created challenges for snow removal. In office activities, construction project design work is ongoing, with all but six of the nine bridges currently in the design phase being completed in-house, along with continued progress on the Niles Corner bridge design agreements.

Rottinghaus/Campbell moved to enter into an agreement with NIACOG regarding amending the county zoning ordinance for Battery Energy Storage Systems. Motion carried 3-0.

Rottinghaus/Campbell moved to enter into an agreement with NIACOG regarding amending the county zoning ordinance for Solar Energy Systems. Motion carried 3-0.

Rottinghaus presented the Congressional Appropriation Grant, as a potential funding option for ambulance support. Due to the upcoming deadline, the ambulance project is not far enough along to be submitted for this year's grant cycle.

Campbell/Rottinghaus moved to approve the renewal liquor license application for Freeze Frame Bowl. Motion carried 3-0.

The board noted the resignation of the 911 Coordinator, Board of Health & Zoning Administrative Assistant, Jen Solomon, effective March 6.

Carr plans to schedule a joint meeting with the Board of Supervisors, 911 Board, EMA Commission, and Communications Advisory Board, tentatively on March 5 or 10 at 5:30 p.m., to discuss oversight responsibilities and future funding options for 911 and dispatch services.

FMC ECI agreed to contribute up to $67,820 to the Charles City Area Development Corporation's new Child Care Wage Enhancement Program, modeled after a successful initiative in Mitchell County. The Board discussed a $10,000 FY26 contribution to support the effort, and Carr will draft an agreement for future consideration.

The Board reviewed salary comparisons for the Auditor, Treasurer, Recorder, Attorney, Sheriff, and Supervisors, with consensus to increase wages by 2.9% for the Auditor, Treasurer, and Recorder; 6.5% for the Attorney and Sheriff; and 2.5% for the Board of Supervisors, with formal action to be taken later.

Campbell/Rottinghaus moved to set the maximum proposed property tax levy and set the public hearing for March 24 at 9 am in the Floyd County Courthouse Boardroom. Motion carried 3-0.

Future agenda items: Secondary Roads Contract, ADC Wage enhancement program, moratorium for data center, bitcoin mining, and hydrogen mining.

The Board conducted FY27 budget reviews including assessing departmental adjustment requests, fund balances, and levy rate options.

Rottinghaus/Campbell moved to adjourn at 12:05 p.m. Motion carried 3-0.
